OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Parish is to be a Catholic, multicultural community of faith, called to witness and proclaim, to celebrate and share the Hope and Charity we have in Jesus Christ as exemplified by St. Josephine Bakhita, our "Universal Sister" and "Model of Hope for the Twenty-first century". We are a people who weave together this neighbourhood as:

- A community of faith, committed to live the Greatest Love of Jesus Christ Crucified, and Mary, Mother of Charity at the foot of the Cross.
- A community of prayer, nourished by the Word of God, the Eucharist, and the traditions of the Church, reflected in the way we live and celebrate.
- A community that welcomes every man and woman, child and youth, to equal discipleship.
- A community that is missionary, open to the needs of the world, committed to the promotion of justice, peace, and the stewardship of creation.
- A community that is not afraid to face its pain and yet deeply trust "in the hope that saves."

We believe that each one is called to be the strand that God will use to weave a tapestry that is intricate and exquisite in this place.

If the secular world can be aggressive, clever, ingenious and risk taking to be successful, how much more the Christian can use those same things in order to ensure a spot in the kingdom to come. Forgive others, use our resources, support those in need. Jesus' message doesn't change!

The first reading today follows our more traditional thought about what should happen to those who take advantage of others, especially the poor. It ends with the words of God: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds." Here God is saying there will be justice meted out to the rich who oppress and cheat to increase their fortunes. In contrast, the psalm says to those who are poor and have been taken advantage of that they will be raised "from the dust" and lifted "from the ash heap" and sit with princes. This is the type of justice we can understand easily.

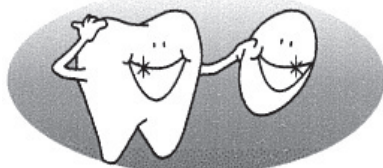

Let us pray that justice will prevail, and that we follow the advice to make supplications, prayers, intercessions and thanksgiving for everyone, even those who have persecuted us or taken advantage of the system to hurt us.

INDIGENOUS ISSUES WORKING TOWARDS RECONCILIATION

Many Canadians see reconciliation with Indigenous peoples – First Nations, Inuit and Métis – as a priority. As a country, we can restore positive relationships and move forward together. Voting responsibly means engaging in dialogue with Indigenous communities on ways to reduce poverty and ensure adequate funding for education, health care, clean water and housing. To continue this work, governments are asked to meaningfully consider the final report of the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls inquiry and the calls to action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. All levels of government, but especially the federal government, can work to strengthen employment and income security in order to support reconciliation with Indigenous peoples. QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION BEFORE YOU VOTE ON OCTOBER 21, 2019: • Why do you think disparities exist between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people? • How do we continue the path of reconciliation and dialogue? • What concrete actions can the Canadian government take to improve the lives of Indigenous people?
