Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

This weekend, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the final Sunday of the liturgical year. It is a reminder that Christ's kingship is not about earthly power or domination, but about love, mercy, and truth. His crown is made of thorns, and His throne is the Cross, a symbol of the self-giving love that redeems the world. In a world that often measures greatness by wealth, success, or influence, Jesus shows us another way: "The greatest among you must be your servant" (Matthew 23:11). He reigns not by ruling over us, but by dwelling within us, guiding us toward peace and eternal life. As we approach the season of Advent, may we open our hearts to Christ our King, inviting Him to reign in our homes, our communities, and our daily choices. Let us allow His compassion to shape our words, His justice to guide our actions, and His love to bring hope to all we meet. "He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet." – 1 Corinthians 15:25. May Christ the King reign in our hearts today and always.
