*Behold, the Lamb of God
who takes away the sin of the world.*

John 1:29

In today's readings, we are invited to contemplate God's saving plan and our place within it. The prophet Isaiah speaks of a servant formed in the womb, chosen not only to gather Israel, but to be "a light to the nations," so that God's salvation may reach "to the ends of the earth." This servant's mission is born from God's initiative, sustained by God's strength, and directed toward the salvation of all peoples.

St. Paul, writing to the Corinthians, reminds us that this mission now extends to the Church. Those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus are "called to be saints." Holiness is not reserved for a few; it is the shared vocation of all who call upon the name of the Lord. St. Paul's greeting of "grace and peace" is more than a polite introduction; it expresses the gift God continually pours out upon His people so they may live their calling in the world.

In the Gospel, John the Baptist reveals the heart of this mission by pointing away from himself and toward Jesus: "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." John's testimony shows us that Christ is the true Servant, foretold by Isaiah, the one upon whom the Spirit rests, the Son of God who brings forgiveness and new life. Jesus is the light given not only for Israel, but for the whole world.

Together, these readings call us to recognize Christ and to bear witness to Him. Christ alone is the true Light; yet, like John the Baptist, we are called to reflect that Light to the world so that others may encounter Him. Formed by God, strengthened by His grace, and sanctified in Christ, we are sent to live as servants and witnesses, so that through our lives others may behold the Lamb of God and encounter His saving love.

Handicraft Holy Land Christians

On the weekend Jan 31 – Feb 1, we will welcome our special guest, Jonelly, from Sebastien Cardinal's team, representing 'Handicraft Holy Land Christians', who after all the masses will briefly address the issues and concerns regarding the Christian presence in the Holy Land. Christians in the Holy Land graciously ask your support through conscience prayers and will have many unique hand carved olive wood religious art pieces made by these families in Bethlehem available for purchase after every mass. Proceeds of the sales generate much needed employment for our Christian brothers and sisters in Bethlehem. May God Bless you for your generosity, for your help and for your prayers.

Cash, debit, credit cards and cheque will be accepted. You can visit and support us at www.HolylandChristians.ca
