The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall possess the land.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice: for they shall have their fill.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called children of God.

Blessed are they that suffer persecution for justice' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

The Beatitudes reveal the heart of Jesus and the path to true happiness. They turn the world's values upside down, teaching us that blessing is found not in power, comfort, or status, but in humility, mercy, purity of heart, and a deep hunger for God. In the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemakers, Jesus shows us what it looks like to trust God completely and to love as He loves. The Beatitudes are not impossible ideals; they are an invitation to live from the inside out. When we choose compassion over indifference, forgiveness over resentment, and faithfulness over fear, we allow God's Kingdom to take root in our lives. In living the Beatitudes, we discover that true joy is born not from having more, but from belonging wholly to Christ.
