The Feast of St. Josephine Bakhita

On the Feast of St. Josephine Bakhita, we honour a woman whose life reveals the quiet power of God's grace. Born into slavery and marked by great suffering, St. Josephine Bakhita's story could have been one of bitterness. Instead, it became a testimony of forgiveness, hope, and deep trust in God.

Through her hardships, St. Josephine Bakhita learned that God was always with her, even before she knew His name. When she came to know Christ, she recognized Him as the One who had walked beside her through every pain and loss. Her faith transformed her wounds into a source of compassion, and her life became a peaceful offering of gratitude and love.

St. Josephine Bakhita reminds us of the sacred dignity of every human person and calls us to see Christ in those who are forgotten or suffering. Her life assures us that no chain is stronger than God's grace and no darkness greater than His light.

May her example inspire us to trust God in our trials, to forgive generously, and to live with hearts made free in Christ.

St. Josephine Bakhita, pray for us.
