For the Parish Community

*Mass Intention requests received after Tuesday at 5:00pm will be mentioned at Mass but may not be printed in the bulletin.

Today we stand at the threshold of Holy Week, holding palms in our hands and praise on our lips. We join the crowd that welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem with joy and hope: "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" Yet, within moments, the tone shifts, and we hear the Passion proclaimed, a reminder of how quickly human hearts can change. Palm Sunday invites us into this tension. It is not simply a day of celebration, nor only a day of sorrow, it is both. We rejoice in Christ our King, humble and gentle, riding on a donkey. At the same time, we walk with Him toward the Cross, where His love is poured out completely. In the Passion, we may recognize ourselves in many places: in Peter's denial, in the crowd's silence, in those who turned away. Yet we are also present in the faithful who stayed, in those who carried the cross with Him, and in the quiet hope that God's love will triumph. This week calls us not to be distant observers, but to enter more deeply into the mystery. Will we walk with Christ not only in moments of praise, but also in moments of suffering? Will we remain with Him, even when the path is difficult? As we begin this sacred journey, may our hearts be open to conversion. Let us follow Jesus more closely through the Cross, trusting that it leads to the joy of the Resurrection. Hosanna in the highest.
