“In my Father’s house, there are many dwelling places.”

There’s something really comforting about these words. Jesus is reminding us that with God, there’s always room. Room for you, for me, for everyone. We’re not forgotten, and we’re not just passing through life without direction. We belong. When life feels uncertain or overwhelming, this promise grounds us. Even if we don’t see the full picture, God is gently leading us, preparing something good for us, a place where we are truly at home. And it also nudges us to think about how we treat others. If God makes space for everyone, then we’re called to do the same. A kind word, a warm welcome, a moment of patience, these are small ways we can help others feel like they belong too. In the end, it’s a simple but powerful reminder: we have a place with God, and we can help create that same sense of home for others.

CHARITABLE TAX CREDIT

Claim a charitable tax credit for donations made to St. Josephine Bakhita Parish

Did you know that your weekly donations made to SJB can be tracked via an envelope number and help you with your taxes?

SJB is a registered charity. By signing up for an envelope or pre-authorized debits from your bank account, you will receive an official donation receipt that you will be able to claim a charitable tax credit.

While we appreciate all donations, cash donations in the basket cannot be attributed back to you and no donation receipt can be issued to you.

For a quick estimate of your charitable donation tax credit use the Charitable donation tax credit calculator on the CRA website, or use the MyCRA mobile app and consider signing up for an envelope or pre-authorized debits from your bank account.
