Mother’s Day invites us to pause and give thanks for the quiet, faithful love that shapes our lives, often in unseen ways. A mother’s care, her sacrifices, her prayers, and her steady presence reflect something of God’s own tenderness toward us. Whether we celebrate joyful memories or carry longing in our hearts, this day reminds us that love given in faith is never lost. In this beautiful month of May, we also turn to Mary, our Blessed Mother. In her gentle “yes” to God, we see the perfect model of trust, humility, and love. She carried Christ not only in her womb, but in her heart, and she continues to walk with us as a mother who understands our joys and sorrows. May all mothers be blessed and strengthened in their vocation, and may Mary wrap each of us in her loving care, leading us ever closer to her Son.

Fr. Mark’s 20th Priestly Ordination Anniversary

As we joyfully celebrate Fr. Mark’s 20th Anniversary of Priestly Ordination on June 10, 2026, we invite you to be part of something meaningful and powerful. Join us in a “20/20 Prayer Initiative” beginning May 21, 2026:

✿ 20 Days ✿ 20 minutes a day

✿ Praying for vocations to the priesthood and religious life

This is a beautiful opportunity to give thanks for the gift of the priesthood and to pray for the future of our Church. Prayer booklets will be provided. Let’s come together as a parish family and surround this anniversary with prayer.
